Peabody-area Robberies, Burglaries and Assaults reported in Johns Hopkins Security Alerts and Advisories

July 1, 2018, to June 30, 2019

Summary:
Two incidents (one aggravated assault, one assault)
Incidents at knifepoint: one
Incidents involving assault: two (one aggravated)
Incidents involving Johns Hopkins students or other affiliates: two

1. Aug. 28, 2018, 12:15 p.m. 600 block of N. Charles Street. Aggravated assault. A single individual held a knife for several seconds to the side of a student sitting on a bench at a shuttle stop, then said that the student had been “punked.”

2. Aug. 29, 2018, 7:20 p.m., 600 block of St. Paul Street. Assault. A student was struck in the face while attempting to intervene to stop an individual chasing a non-affiliate.

###