East Baltimore-area Assaults, Robberies, Burglaries and Property Damage reported in Johns Hopkins Security Alerts and Advisories

July 1, 2017, to June 30, 2018

- July 11, 2017, 5:30 p.m. Assault and robbery. 2000 block of East Madison Street. Non-affiliate attacked by eight to 10 male individuals. Taken: athletic shoes.
- July 18, 2017, 7:50 p.m. Assault and attempted robbery. 100 block North Caroline Street. Victim sustained injuries. Group of individuals also believed responsible for No. 3 below. No further information.
- July 18, 2017, 8:12 p.m. Assault and attempted robbery. 400 block North Central Avenue. Victim sustained injuries. Group of individuals also believed responsible for No. 2 above. No further information.
- July 19, 2017, 5:34 p.m. Aggravated assault (shooting). Chester and McElderry streets. Nonaffiliate walked from scene to security officer posted at Washington and Monument streets and reported being shot in the left foot.
- Oct. 4, 2017, 4 p.m. Assault and robbery. Monument Street at Eden Street. Johns Hopkins affiliate confronted and punched in the face by three male individuals. Taken: purse, wallet, cell phone, tablet. (Purse and wallet recovered by passerby who have chase.)
- Oct. 24, 2017, 4:40 p.m. Assault and robbery. 1400 block E. Monument Street. Kennedy Krieger affiliate approached from behind by five male individuals, who struck the victim and took his property. Victim suffered minor injuries. Third known incident in three weeks at this approximate location, at approximately the same time with perhaps the same perpetrators.
- Nov. 9, 2017, 4:50 p.m. Property damage. Madison Street at Ensor Street. Affiliate driving west was approached at traffic light by four male individuals, who yelled at the driver and then kicked the rear panel of the vehicle on the driver side, causing significant damage.
- Nov. 9, 2017, 6:05 p.m. Assault. Caroline Street between Jefferson and McElderry streets. Affiliate approached by six or seven male individuals, one of whom struck the victim in the face, causing minor injuries.
- Nov. 13, 2017, 1:35 a.m. Aggravated assault (shooting). 1700 block of E. Monument Street near Broadway. Two eastbound vehicles stopped just past the intersection. One occupant of each car exited vehicles and got into a physical altercation. One pulled a gun and shot the other in the right leg. Victim was later treated at JHH emergency department.

- Jan. 24, 2018, 7:10 p.m. Armed robbery. 700 block N. Broadway. Non-affiliate grabbed and robbed at knifepoint by two male individuals. Taken: personal property. A Kennedy Krieger security officer and an off-duty Baltimore sheriff’s deputy working for Johns Hopkins witnessed the robbery. They chased and arrested one of the perpetrators.
- Feb. 15, 2018, 4:30 p.m. Robbery. 700 block N. Broadway. Non-affiliate approached from behind and was threatened with stabbing, though no knife was seen. Taken: phone.
- *Feb. 25, 2018, late night to early morning. Burglary. Inside commercial business in the Johns Hopkins Hospital complex. This was the latest of a series of burglaries in commercial businesses in the hospital complex on different dates. Arrest warrant obtained for a suspect believed responsible for the burglaries.
- *April 12, 2018, 3:40 p.m. Bank robbery (armed). 2000 block E. Monument Street. Wells Fargo bank branch robbed by a male individual carrying a note claiming he had a gun and demanding money. Taken: cash.
- June 26, 2018, 10:50 p.m. Robbery and assault. 1800 block Orleans Street (near the Orleans Garage entrance). A non-affiliate walking along the street was pushed against a wall by three suspects and struck in the face by one of the three. Another grabbed the victim’s bag of fast food. Taken: food.

* Not a street crime.