Peabody-area Robberies, Burglaries and Assaults reported in Johns Hopkins Security Alerts and Advisories

July 1, 2017, to June 30, 2018

- Aug. 30, 2017, 11 p.m. Armed robbery. 700 block N. Charles Street. Student robbed by individual who stated that he had a gun. Taken: wallet, phone.

- Sept. 18, 2017, 8:30 p.m. Assault and attempted robbery. Unit block E. Mount Vernon Place. A Peabody Prep parent was struck in the face by individuals who attempted to take the parent’s phone.

- Oct. 20, 2017, 7:13 p.m. Assault and attempted robbery, followed immediately by robbery. Unit block E. Mount Vernon Place and nearby. Non-affiliate was struck by individuals who attempted to take his wallet. When victim resisted, individuals ran to the 600 block of St. Paul Street and snatched another non-affiliate’s phone. Taken: phone.

- April 26, 2018, 11 a.m. Attempted armed robbery. 600 block St. Paul Street. Student at Johns Hopkins shuttle stop approached by two male individuals who demanded his phone at knifepoint. Individuals fled when others arrived at the shuttle stop.

- April 26, 2018, 11:30 a.m. Armed robbery. 500 block St. Paul Street. Student robbed at knifepoint by two individuals. This occurred shortly after crime No. 5, and nearby. The victim’s description of the individuals matched that of crime No. 5. Taken: phone.

- April 29, 2018, 1:45 a.m. Armed robbery. 700 block N. Charles St. Student and friends ordered at gunpoint into an alley, where suspect robbed the student. Taken: wallet, phone.

- April 30, 2018, 2 p.m. Attempted armed robbery. 600 block St. Paul Street. Student at Johns Hopkins shuttle stop approached at knifepoint by one individual, who demanded money but fled without taking any.

- April 30, 2018, 2:25 p.m. Attempted armed robbery. Unit block E. Madison Street between Charles and St. Paul streets. Student approached at knifepoint by one individual, who demanded a phone but left without taking it when he saw the model of phone the student carried. Description of individual similar to that in crime No. 8, which occurred shortly before and nearby.

- May 3, 2018, 11:30 a.m. Assault and robbery. 700 block N. Charles St. Student walking toward Johns Hopkins shuttle stop was pushed by a male individual. Taken: phone.

- May 18, 2018, 12:15 p.m. Aggravated assault. Unit block E. Centre St. Student standing along the block was hit in the right arm, neck and back by a paintball gun fired from a passing car.

- June 20, 2018, 11:57 a.m. Sexual assault. Unit block E. Centre St. A Peabody Security officer investigating a report of a disturbance was inappropriately touched. The assault was committed by one of two individuals who had allegedly been engaging in aggressive filming of patrons and staff at Maestro’s Café, a university-operated food-service establishment.

###